

CRS COVID-19 Safety Guidelines

PURPOSE

To ensure the safety and well-being of the Columbia River Symphony membership/musicians/supporters, the Columbia River Symphony has enacted safety precautions per guidance from the CDC, local, state, and federal entities.

*Please note that these guidelines are subject to change.

*Guidelines Updated 01/14/2023

PROCEDURES

COVID-19, or Coronavirus, symptoms include, but are not limited to: fever or chills, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, new loss of taste or smell, sore throat, congestion or runny nose, nausea or vomiting, diarrhea. The CDC is continuing to update this list as more is continued to be learned.

Board Responsibilities

1. The CRS board will evaluate the safety of holding rehearsals and cancel as needed.
2. The board will do its best to balance the mental health with physical health and safety of symphony members/musicians.
3. The board will ensure all attending are following the guidelines below to the best of their ability.

Member/Musician Responsibilities:

1. CRS Members/Musicians are NOT to attend rehearsal if they are ill in any way, or exhibiting any illness like symptoms. It is recommended if a symphony member/musician is experiencing any of COVID-19 symptoms, they do NOT attend rehearsal..
2. In order to participate in rehearsals and concerts, ALL symphony members/musicians must sign this COVID-19 Liability Release form. Forms will be present at all rehearsals. If you would like a form emailed to you...please message us at CRSMusicians@gmail.com
3. Masks are optional.
